Dear Staff,

I hope that each of you had the opportunity to spend quality and memorable time with your family and friends and you are relaxed, refreshed and eager for the 2017 - 2018 school year. I would like to take this opportunity to write, I am honored and humbled to be your Superintendent of Schools. As I begin my eighteenth year in Brentwood, I do so with the knowledge that I am fortunate to lead an exceptional staff and to be part of one of the best school districts in New York State.

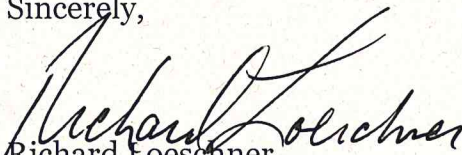

As September 6th rapidly approaches, and we hurriedly prepare buildings and classrooms to welcome almost 20,000 students, I must thank each of you for your love, passion, professionalism and tireless efforts to ensure the students of Brentwood receive an outstanding education. From newly arrived immigrants to Ivy League bound seniors our teachers and staff welcome, cherish and deliver on our pledge to give students and families an outstanding experience and high quality education.

I am pleased to announce that our first Superintendent's Conference Day will be held on September 5th in the Sonderling gymnasium for all teachers, teacher assistants and monitors. Breakfast will be served at 8:00 a.m. and staff will be back in their home buildings by 10:30 a.m.

It certainly is beginning to feel like back to school time; schools are having orientations, teachers are readying classrooms for students, kids and families are stopping by to check out schedules and rooms, fall sports began their two-a-day practices and the Green Machine is putting in long rehearsals, as they march towards Syracuse. Buildings and Grounds, Information & Technology, Food Services, Transportation, Registration and Administration are working around the clock to ensure we have a smooth, inviting and exciting school opening.

Finally, it is my hope that you have a professionally fulfilling, enjoyable and productive school year.

Sincerely,

Richard Loeschner
Superintendent of Schools
